Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 01/09/2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
2. In response to applicant's argument that there is no suggestion to combine the references, the examiner recognizes that obviousness can only be established by combining or modifying the teachings of the prior art to produce the claimed invention where there is some teaching, suggestion, or motivation to do so found either in the references themselves or in the knowledge generally available to one of ordinary skill in the art. See In re Fine, 837 F.2d 1071, 5 USPQ2d 1596 (Fed. Cir. 1988) and In re Jones, 958 F.2d 347, 21 USPQ2d 1941 (Fed. Cir. 1992).
3. In response to applicant's argument that Rim and Ward are nonanalogous art, it has been held that a prior art reference must either be in the field of applicant's endeavor or, if not, then be reasonably pertinent to the particular problem with which the applicant was concerned, in order to be relied upon as a basis for rejection of the claimed invention. See In re Oetiker, 977 F.2d 1443, 24 USPQ2d 1443 (Fed. Cir. 1992).
4. In response to applicant's arguments regarding claims 20 and 25, a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 28-41 allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 20-22 and 24-27 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yu et al. (6,784,101) in view of Rim (6,603,156) further in view of Ward et al. (2005/0132952)

Regarding Claims 20-22 and 24-27, Yu et al. disclose formation of high-k gate dielectric layers for MOS devices fabricated on strained lattice semiconductor substrates with minimized stress relaxation where in Fig. 7 a semiconductor substrate comprising a strained lattice semiconductor layer at an upper surface and high-k dielectric layer 6 and semiconductor gate/device structure 8 disclosed over the high-k dielectric layer. Yu et al. fail to disclose the required epi-silicon structure, the required type of high-k dielectric layer, the required epi layer dislocation density and the required epi layer thickness. However, Rim discloses a strained silicon on insulator structures wherein Fig. 1, layer 12 is epi-silicon layer. Furthermore, Rim discloses the required type of high-k dielectric layer in paragraph 14. Ward et al. disclose a semiconductor alloy with surface roughness and method of making the same where in claims 15, 16, and 20 the required epi layer dislocation density is disclosed and in claim 9 the required epi layer thickness is disclosed.

It would have been obvious to one of having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include the required epi-silicon layer, the required type of gate dielectric, the required epi layer dislocation density and the required epi layer thickness in Yu et al. as taught by Rim and Ward et al. respectively, in order to have a semiconductor device with increased performance.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
